

Creativity, Collaboration and Fun!

Saturday, September 30th

What: Come and enjoy learning through the theater arts! This session will focus on advancing skills in critical thinking, problem solving, leadership and collaboration through arts-integrated activities.

About First Stage: Since 1992, the First Stage Academy has fostered a positive atmosphere, building community not competition, where young people can trust themselves and others, see that it is OK to be themselves, and learn to overcome the fear of failure by taking positive risks in a completely supportive environment.

When: There will be three grade-leveled sessions:

3rd and 4th grade: 9:00 AM – 10:00 AM – <https://goo.gl/VsbZBs>

5th and 6th grade: 10:15 AM – 11:15 AM – <https://goo.gl/RFW8y4>

7th and 8th grade: 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM – <https://goo.gl/8TekBf>

Where: Menomonee Falls High School, Room 124

W142 N8101 Merrimac Drive

Menomonee Falls, WI 53051

How: Sign up through Eventbrite by clicking on the link next to your child's grade. Tickets are free, but each session is limited to the first 50 students to register. A waiting list will be maintained for sessions that are filled, and alternate attendees will be contacted in the case of cancellations. Onsite entry without prior registration will not be permitted. An adult's presence is required for each registration.

This event is sponsored by CESA #1 P.A.G.E., Partners for the Advancement of Gifted Education
